

Dahlia Khalifa

Dahlia Khalifa is a consultant to international and non-profit organizations, as well as corporate and individual investors. She has 21 years of experience in economic and policy analysis, financial services, investment banking, and strategic communications. Ms. Khalifa has managed financial services companies offering brokerage, private equity investing, management consulting, and technical assistance advisory services with an African and Middle East regional focus. Her work with non-profit organizations include founding Egypt's International Economic Forum and her tenure as Vice President of the American Chamber of Commerce in Egypt. She currently sits on the Board of One Global Economy, a not-for-profit organization focused on poverty alleviation through self-help empowering technologies. Ms. Khalifa is also a member of the Advisory Board of the US-Egypt Friendship Society (USEF) based in Washington D.C. In addition to her M.A. in economics and M.A. in international law, she is currently finalizing a doctoral degree in international relations at Georgetown University.